My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing.
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring!

ANTE-COLONIAL.

"COLUMBUS AT THE COURT OF QUEEN ISABELLA."

Spain—1492.

Isabella's chief title to fame rests upon the well-known part she took in promoting the great object of Columbus. She was a zealous Catholic. In the New World her memory will be immortal.

August 3, 1492, Columbus, with three ships and one hundred and twenty men, left the harbor of Palos. After seventy-one days of sailing, land was discovered.

ACT I.

COLONIAL DAYS.

1. "LANDING OF THE PILGRIMS."

Plymouth—1620.

"Pilgrim Fathers and Mothers." A name given to one hundred and two English Puritans, seventy-four men and twenty-eight women, members of John Robinson's church, who sailed in the "Mayflower" from Leyden to North America, and landed at Plymouth, December 22, 1620, after a sixty three days' voyage.

PATRON, Mrs. A. C. GOODRICH.

Men, Women and Children.

2. "BANISHMENT OF ANNE HUTCHINSON."

Boston—1637.

In 1634, Anne Hutchinson instituted meetings of women in Boston for the discussion of doctrinal questions. She created a powerful faction, and led to public disturbances. In 1637, she was banished to Rhode Island. Sir Harry Vane, the Governor of Massachusetts, was her defender.

2. "THE BOSTON TEA PARTY."

1773.

"No taxation without representation"

The authorities stubbornly stood their ground and refused the British tea. A great town meeting assembled. Adams and Quincy spoke. In the evening a war-whoop was heard. Men disguised as Indians boarded the tea ships and threw the chests of tea into the sea. Parliament made haste to take revenge.

Chief, Major A. J. ALLEN.
Indians, Sonquassen Tribe, No. 2.
Sailors, High School Students and Junior Prohibition Club.
PATRON, Major A. J. ALLEN.

3. "THE BATTLE OF BUNKER HILL."

Charlestown—1775.

The British were twice driven to flight, but the Americans had used all their ammunition, and the heroic defenders of liberty were then driven out of their trenches at the point of the bayonet.

The loss of the British was 1,054 in killed and wounded. The loss of the Americans was 115 killed, 305 wounded, and 32 prisoners. The colonists were not discouraged. They saw that British soldiers were not invincible.

ACT III.

NATIONAL AND REFORMATORY PERIOD.

Part I.—Emancipation.

1. "The Boston Broadcloth Mob."

1835.

A pro-slavery mob of "gentlemen of property and standing," who are known only to history as "The Boston Mob." And in the memory of those who witnessed the mob, the unknown man, Garrison, whom they dragged through the streets with a rope around his waist, is given a statue on the most beautiful avenue in Boston—(Commonwealth avenue).

Garrison,
Mob—Young men from Hannum & Stedman's Business College and Trinity College.
Patrons,	{ Mr. Colin Pitblado. { Mr. F. A. Stedman.

2. "Anthony Burns Returned to Slavery"

1854.

"I love inexpressibly those streets of Boston, over which my mother held up my baby footsteps; and if God grants me time enough I will make them too pure to be trodden by the footsteps of a slave."—Wendell Phillips.

"There was little commotion when Sims was returned, but upon the rendition of Anthony Burns—who was then only 19 years of age—the awful spectacular display of marines, cannon shotted to the muzzle, Court-House in chains, Burns manacled hand and foot, surrounded by a triple guard of marines, the hissing, hooting, surging, agonized crowds on the sidewalks, the tolling of bells, and the silent, solemn march of the encircling guard of marines, with Burns in the centre, as they walked with downcast eyes to the dock, formed a tragic pageant that burned itself in lines of fire into my memory forever."—Mary A. Livermore.

Anthony Burns,	Mr. Sidney Besse.
U. S. Marshal Freeman,	Adelbert Chapman.

Columbia Cycles.

WHAT is thought of the COLUMBIA CYCLES in the city where they are made?

Hartford has a population of about 60,000, and over 350 Columbias have been sold this season in the City of Hartford alone, not counting the surrounding towns. Will 200 more Columbias be sold in Hartford before January 1, 1890? Based on the actual sales to date, is not 200 a low estimate? Out of a membership of 72 in the Hartford Wheel Club, 64 ride Columbias. The Columbia Cycle Club have 59 members and they all ride Columbias. In the L. A. W. Parade in Hartford, Sept. 2d, 264 out of 389 machines were Columbias.

Hillsboro, Ohio—Dec. 23, 1873.

"For God and Home and Native Land."

From this little praying band has come in sixteen years the grandest organization the world has ever seen. 200,000 women, members of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, with Frances E. Willard its leader and general—unmatched in the history of the world's generals—are banded together to rout the greatest enemy of the world—Intemperance.

Song—"Goddess of Liberty,"
MISS HARRIET M. BREESE.

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC.

BY JULIA WARD HOWE.

Tune—"John Brown."

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord,
He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He has loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword;
His truth is marching on.

CHORUS:—Glory, Glory, Hallelujah!
Glory, Glory, Hallelujah!
Glory, Glory, Hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat;
He is sifting out the hearts of men before His judgment-seat;
Oh, be swift, my soul, to answer Him! be jubilant my feet!
Our God is marching on.—Chorus.

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea,
With a glory in His bosom that transfigures you and me;
As He died to make men holy, let us die to make men free,
While God is marching on.—Chorus.
